WINTER JACKETS—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

THE TYPICAL
Winter Jackets
FOR 1893-4.

RE made of Covert, Kersey, Beaver, Chinchilla, Rough Cheviot, Diagonal and Mixed Cloths. The Colors that predominate aside from Black are Havana, Myrtle, Navy and Tan. Thirty-two inches is the average length, although some are two inches shorter, or just as much longer. Double Breasted Loose Fronts, with immense revers, are largely in the majority, some few, however, being made tight-fitting. But the most pleasing feature of the 1893-4 jacket is embodied in the "Worth" collar, with its ample and wavy spread from shoulder to shoulder.

Where this collar is not applied the turn or roll is much wider than formerly, and is frequently made of velvet, with cuffs and edges to correspond. Many collars of this style have in addition a full circular ruffle of cloth attached, which gives an added air of gracefulness. Sleeves are quite narrow at the cuffs, tapering gradually into extreme largeness at the shoulders. Backs have more or less of the "umbrella" fullness. Many of the jackets are trimmed with neat fur edging. Capes in Seal Plush, Cloth and Fur that are decidedly handsome. For beauty and quantity this season's stock of CHILDREN'S WRAPS eclipses all former lines. We have special sizes—39, 41, 43 and 45, in Ladies' Jackets. Larger sizes made to order. Our Jackets and Capes are shapeliness personified—the creation of expert men tailors—products of the best skill and most advanced ideas procurable. Special values from $4.95 up.

Paving Stone Sold.
Yesterday the last of the city's left-over paving stone from the public building square was sold, and it will all be removed this week from about the square, where it has been an eyesore for weeks. Altogether the sale of the stone has netted the city $378.75, which is not so bad.

At Clerk Hook's Office.
Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made September 26 by Frank Koprowski and wife to Nicholas Heil, for $290, lot 2 in John A. Hess's addition, on Forty-fifth street.
A marriage license was issued to Harlan P. Carter, aged forty, and Emma H. Brown, aged twenty-seven, of Ohio county.

In the Criminal Court.
In the criminal court yesterday, Judge Jordan on the bench, William McGumphy and Lee Robinson, indicted for a misdemeanor, renting a house to be used as a house of ill fame, pled guilty, and the court took the sentence under advisement. The court adjourned till Friday at 9:30 a. m. No business was transacted in either part of the circuit court.

Will not be Prosecuted.
T. J. Steele was taken into custody by the police yesterday on a complaint that he had ordered about $2,000 worth of musical goods from Hamilton, of Pittsburgh, and secured about $20 worth of them, the rest to be shipped on notice. It was said that he represented to the firm that he had worked for House and for Baumer here, that he had $6,000 and had married a girl worth $200,000, all of which was a fairy tale. After he had been detained two or three hours a telegram was received from Pittsburgh, saying he would not be prosecuted, and he was released.

Engaged in Another Row.
Yesterday police court warrants were issued for County Constable William Laughlin, his brother, Bert Laughlin and Carrie Palmer, for disorderly conduct, and for James Rowan for allowing a prostitute to drink and loiter in the Milwaukee saloon. These cases grew out of a disturbance at that saloon very early yesterday morning, when Constable Laughlin followed the Palmer woman there and assaulted her. His brother Bert, interferred, and became involved in the row also. He had already been suspended from his position at the Atlantic engine house for drinking, but is said to have tried to act as a peacemaker in the row. Carrie Palmer was locked up, while the others deposited the cash to cover their fines and were allowed to go.

Low Water Figures.
This season of low water has been the longest extended ever experienced in these waters, and from present indications the end is not yet. Not only has the low water period been very long, but the record for the lowest water, ever experienced here was broken, the river getting down one day in August to seven inches; before that the record was nine inches. Following is a table showing the lowest water experienced in the past six years, each month:

Month	1888	1889	1890	1891	1892	1893
January	8.9	7.6	8.5	8.2	6.0	4.5
February	7.9	5.5	5.7	15.5	6.0	8.5
March	7.5	6.5	7.7	8.2	7.7	8.9
April	6.3	6.5	6.5	8.7	7.7	8.7
May	6.1	6.3	10.0	2.9	6.5	7.7
June	2.8	7.5	5.2	4.7	4.3	3.2
July	2.7	5.0	1.7	4.0	3.9	1.7

December	7.5	8.2	6.7	6.7	2.5

The Rain Censes.
The river at this point last evening was at the twenty-inch mark, and still slowly rising. Not more than a two or three foot stage is expected at this time. The only departure yesterday was the C. H. Woods, which left for Matamoras and way points at noon. She had the best trip she ever carried out of the city, and had to take a lighter along to accommodate the freight shipments offered her. She is now the only boat running out of Wheeling. She covers the Clarington trade lately occupied by the Virginia Ratliff, which went back to the Sandy. Following are the reports from headwaters received last night:
Oil City, Pa.—River 2 inches and stationary; clear and cool.
Warren, Pa.—River two-tenths of a foot below zero; clear and cool.
Greensboro, Pa.—River 6 feet inches and falling; clear and cool.

U. S. COURT MATTERS.

The Court will Adjourn To-Day—That Wetzel Land Case Put Off.
The big land suit from Wetzel county, which is known as the Dewhurst-Robinson case, and was to have been tried in the United States court here this week, will not come off as expected. It seems that the case was set for Wheeling with the understanding that it would take about two or three days of the court's attention, whereas when it came up yesterday morning it became known to Judge Jackson for the first time that there were over seventy witnesses, and that it would probably be over a week before the case could be finished. The judge then determined to have it continued until the Parkersburg term of the court, which will commence January 3. This action was taken.

The case of the Glade Creek & Raleigh Railway Company vs. M. Erskine Miller and others came up in United States court yesterday, but owing to the fact that the amount involved did not reach $2,000, the case was remanded to the circuit court of the county from which it came, Raleigh.

The U. S. court juries were discharged yesterday afternoon and the court itself will adjourn to-day. Judge Jackson will convene the Clarkburg term next Monday morning.

FIRE OUT THE PIKE.

Noah Zane's Barn, at Pleasant Valley, is Destroyed.

At an early hour yesterday morning the barn of Noah Zane, at Pleasant Valley, east of the city, was discovered to be on fire, and such progress had the flames made that in the absence of any adequate means of fighting the fire it was impossible even to check the flames, and the barn and its contents were entirely destroyed.

The most lamentable feature of the blaze was the fact that Mrs. Zane's fine driving horse was in the stable, and was burned to death. He was a valuable animal, and much thought of by the family. A carriage and a buggy were also destroyed, with hay, grain, harness and other articles, making the loss in all probably $1,300. The Peabody Company held policies on the stable for $100, the horse for $300, and the carriages, feed, etc., for $500, in all $900.

Just before the fire broke out a young son of Mr. Hamilton, a neighbor, was looking toward the stable, and he saw a man leave it and walk down the road toward town. It is thought he was a tramp, and probably he accidentally started the fire while smoking.

At the Musee.

Crowds of people throng the Musee Theatre to see McGee break chains, ropes, bars of steel and iron, and also records held by so called champions. Wells and Monroe, Val Vano and Bonnie Bessie Searles, are delighting the multitudes at Manager Laurer's little play house this week, and Monday next will see the introduction of the system which has made the Musee business such a success, the presentation to all ladies, night or day, of a handsome souvenir, which will be seen in various windows about the city. They are beauties.

Bartley Campbell's "Siberia."

"Siberia" was presented by a fair company to a fair sized audience at the Opera House last night. It is not Bartley Campbell's masterpiece, but it is worthy of his fame, and evidently its presentation won favor. Some of the actors are weak, and none show evenness of merit, but the scenery was good and the production as a whole had considerable merit. Will D. Ingram, who played the role of the young governor, is a Wheeling boy, and does the town credit.

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant liquid laxative Syrup of Figs.
